

I support the ARRL's proposed restructuring of the Amateur Radio licensing format. In addition to keeping the 5 wpm requirement for the Extra Class license, I would also encourage the FCC to keep the Extra Class cw portions of the HF bands as they currently exist. Dropping the code requirement for the two other license classes will remove a roadblock to the entry level of our hobby and hopefully bring more people into amateur radio. Thank you for your consideration of this proposal.